Kitchen table decor is another thing to think about as you're buying your table. Are you a placemat person, or not? If so, look for mats in natural fibers like bamboo or jute - these are great in country, cottage, Asian and coastal kitchens. More formal, traditional kitchens work with fancier place mats in washable damask, jacquard or toile.

My first place had a Murphy bed and a kitchen the size of a closet with almost no counter space. My second place had a kitchen with bar seating but no room for any sort of dining table. While some people may never think to host a dinner party in such cramped conditions, I love entertaining at home and have always invited people over for dinner.
