"The New Media "The New Media Theory Reader" brings together key readings on new media - what it is, where it came from, how it affects our lives, and how it is managed. Using work from media studies, cultural history and cultural studies, economics, law, and politics, the essays encourage readers to pay close attention to the 'new' in new media, as well as considering it as a historical phenomenon.

The New Media Theory Reader by Robert Hassan

The New Media Reader is a physically as well as intellectually impressive anthology of foundational texts in the field of what we now refer to as new media and new media arts . . . The New Media Reader makes evident that the field is built on the shoulders of giants, and it remains for their present-day successors to honour and extend those visions." —From "The Shoulders of Giants: The New Media Reader" in Fine Art Forum, Vol. 17, No. 11, November 2003.
